

Cyclone Gabrielle

Rates relief application form

If your property has received a yellow sticker due to damage caused by Cyclone Gabrielle, you may be eligible for rates relief. Red stickered properties that have been deemed uninhabitable will receive a rates remission automatically (you do not need to complete this application).

RELIEF AVAILABLE

The Council will provide either a remission or postponement of the 3rd and 4th 2022/23 rates instalment.

* A remission will apply until 30 June 2023 and will be reassessed for the 2023/24 rates.

* A postponement will require payment of the rates by an agreed time, but no later than 30 June 2025

QUALIFYING CRITERIA (IMPORTANT)

To qualify for this rates relief, the property must have been officially yellow stickered by Council. For a remission to be granted, the yellow sticker must be on the main dwelling/building on the property (i.e. primary residence).

If the main dwelling/building is useable (white/no sticker) but a yellow sticker has been applied to another building(s) on the property (i.e. workshop, storage unit, sleepout, cabin etc.), rates will not be remitted however rates can be postponed for a period, determined between Council and the applicant (but no later than 30 June 2025).
