CONDITIONS

This permit does not specify the number of dogs which can be kept, however the more dogs kept the more difficult it is to manage nuisance. Should your dogs' cause a nuisance Council may require you to reduce the dogs to a more manageable number or may cancel the permit.

This permit recognises you as a responsible owner and can therefore be transferred to another urban property at which you reside.

All dogs kept at the property must be kept in such a manner as to not cause a nuisance to neighbours.

All dogs must be kept under proper control at all times. This means all dogs must be under the direct control of a person or confined within the property in such a manner so as not to be able to freely leave the property.

All dogs kept must be registered in accordance with the Dog Control Act 1996

This permit does not grant permission to operate breeding or boarding kennels for pecuniary gain. Such activity may be subject to a resource consent granted under the provisions of the Hastings District Council's Plan

Any breach of the above conditions may result in the cancellation of this permit.
