WHAT IS A STALL HOLDER?

A stall holder's licence is required for stalls that are operated in a public place.

TYPES OF STALL

Hastings Mall Area

Stall Holders in the Mall need to obtain approval from the Council to occupy a site and pay a site rental.

STALLS SELLING FOOD

In addition to obtaining a stall holders licence, businesses¹ that sell food are generally required to register a Food Control Plan or National Programme (see below for further details, also please talk to an Environmental Health Officer at the Hastings District Council if you require any further about this). The Food Control Plan (FCP) or National Programme (NP) must be registered in the district the business is based in. Application forms to register a FCP or NP in the Hastings District are available on Council's website or can be found at the following link:

Application for registration under the Food Act 2014

Food Control Plans

A food control plan sets out the steps a business making or selling higher-risk foods needs to take to make safe food. It is used to identify food safety risks, and to show how they're being managed. Further information on FCPs can be found at the following link:

<https://www.mpi.govt.nz/food-safety/food-act-2014/food-control-plans/>

National Programmes

A national programme is the way that lower-risk food businesses operate under the Food Act 2014. Further information on National Programmes can be found at the following link:

<http://www.mpi.govt.nz/food-safety/food-act-2014/national-programmes/>

Where does your business fit in the new food regime?

To help you find out what food safety measure your business needs to operate under, the Ministry of Primary Industries (MPI) have developed a "where do I fit tool?" at the following address:

<http://www.mpi.govt.nz/food-safety/food-act-2014/where-do-i-fit/>

Verification of Food Control Plan or National Programme

Your business will need to be verified (audited) when you first register it. For information on the frequency of subsequent verifications required for food businesses, please contact an Environmental Health Officer at the Hastings District Council.

Please note:

Currently Council is not providing a verification service for businesses on National Programmes. Therefore you will need to find a private auditor and arrange to have verifications from them. You will need to specify who your auditor is when you register your business. A link to the MPI Auditor Register is provided below.

¹ *The Food Act 2014 came into force on 1 March 2016. The Act applies to all new food businesses.
