WHAT'S ON

Message from the mayor

We are proud of how our community and our council continue to respond to the ongoing challenges of COVID-19.

Our council is committed to supporting our community through the uncertainty of the pandemic; we are doing our utmost to keep our economy moving and our people employed.

Our focus is on jobs for our people. Hastings district has received about $160m in post-COVID-19 government "shovel-ready project" funding, and for our council that has helped fast-track projects in roading upgrades, cycleways, footpaths and new infrastructure for housing developments. These projects have brought new employment opportunities for many of our people.

Over the past three years our council has delivered safe drinking water across the district, reopened the Opera House at Toitōi – Hawke's Bay Arts and Events Centre, revitalised the city centre, opened a significant new connector road, Te Ara Kahikatea, across Whakatū, as well as reduced waste to landfill.

As I write this Council has almost finalised the draft of its 2021-2031 Long Term Plan — the blueprint for our community's future.

This plan proposes investment in improving our roading network; safeguarding our wastewater, drinking water and stormwater infrastructure; managing our growth and protecting our highly productive land; delivering quality housing; revitalising our city centre; supporting the business community; bringing to our district employment and economic investment opportunities; and enhancing and protecting our beautiful environment, reserves and special places.

We are striving to deliver on the things that will make a positive difference to our community while keeping rates affordable.

The Hastings District is doing well. I am excited about our future.

We would love to hear what is important to you as we plan an exciting and prosperous future for all.

Look out for the consultation document in your letterbox and on our website.

Ngā mihi

Sandra Hazlehurst,
Hastings Mayor.

Something for all at Land Rover Horse of the Year

Organisers are again delighted to be hosting another Land Rover Horse of the Year in Hastings, not only New Zealand's premier equestrian event showcase, but also purported to be the largest in the Southern Hemisphere!

The show attracts more than 1400 riders and 1900 horses from all around New Zealand who come to compete for titles and high-stakes prize money throughout the six-day extravaganza. (Sunday's Stirrups NZ Olympic Cup show-jumping class has a prize pool of $80k!) Spectators can enjoy the thrill of Olympic level show-jumping, the elegance and grace of dressage, the adrenalin of cross country and a host of other equestrian displays.

Don't be fooled into thinking you have to be "horsey" to enjoy Land Rover Horse of the Year, it is an absolute "must see" for anyone who delights in watching live action and world-class competition, or just getting out and about to see something new.

Other highlights include plenty of shopping with more than 160 trade sites, a food court, bars and hospitality and lots of family fun.

Look out for the "Resene Horse Play Activation Centre" where kids can go and enjoy all kinds of horse-related games and activities such as painting, "pin the tail on the pony" and more.

Land Rover Horse of the Year opens Tuesday, March 9, with plenty to see all week. Don't miss "Free-for-All Friday" with free entry from 3pm. Come down and watch the Craigs Investment Partners Junior Rider of the Year, followed by the Cavalino Silver Fern Stakes. Bring the family, grab dinner, and do some late-night shopping! Other highlights include the Land Rover Burghley Cross Country on Saturday and the Day of Champions on Sunday.

The Land Rover Horse of the Year runs from March 9 to 14 – to find out more and book tickets, go to www.hoy.kiwi

World-class athletics coming to the Bay

Hawke's Bay residents will get the chance to see world-class athletes in action in their own backyard in March when the Jennian Homes New Zealand Track and Field Championships comes to town.

The prestigious event will take place at Mitre 10 Park in Hastings over three days from March 5 and is set to attract more than 600 of the country's finest athletes.

Always a highlight of the sporting year, the 2021 meet promises to be even more special as it takes place only a few months before the rescheduled Olympics and Paralympics, meaning many of the competitors will be at their best as they look to peak for a shot at glory in Tokyo.

All the big names of New Zealand athletics are likely to descend on Hastings, with locals treated to the likes of Dame Valerie Adams, Tom Walsh, Eliza McCartney and rising sprint star Eddie Osei-Nketia all strutting their stuff on home soil.

A host of Paralympians will also be on show, including Holly Robinson, Anna Grimaldi, Jess Hamill and William Stedman, who all won medals at the 2016 Rio Paralympics, and world-record holder Lisa Adams.

"It's a great opportunity for the Bay and for athletics to be brought here," says Dame Valerie Adams, one of the most iconic figures in New Zealand sport after winning two Olympic gold medals and four world championship titles in shot put.

"It's a lovely place to compete – I have competed here before and I absolutely love it. Everyone will be able to see athletes performing to the highest of their ability, especially with it being an Olympic year."

And it is not just spectators at Mitre 10 Park who will be in for a treat.

With visitor spend estimated at nearly $1.8 million, over 10,000 bed nights, significant media coverage across New Zealand and live streaming worldwide, the Hawke's Bay region is set to benefit greatly by hosting one of the marquee events on the New Zealand sporting calendar.

Tickets available at the gate or to buy online now via Eventbrite.

Olympic bronze medal winner Eliza McCartney will be one of the top athletes competing at the event.

Women's Rest celebrates 100 years

The Hastings Municipal Women's Rest building will be turning 100 this year, and celebration organisers are keen to hear from any relatives of the original donors who made the building possible.

Significant for its architecture and contribution to civic life for the women of Hastings, both rural and urban, the building's anniversary will be held on March 23 this year, between 10-11am, followed by an Open Day until 5pm.

All are welcome to join the celebrations, and if any relatives of the original donors wish to get in touch they can email Amanda at manager@hwc.nz.

Two Ladies intrigues and captivates

Auckland Theatre Company, together with Toitōi – Hawke's Bay Arts & Events Centre, is bringing its latest production, Two Ladies, to Hastings at the end of March. Toitōi kaiwhakahaere/manager Megan Peacock-Coyle went to the opening night last month...

With a star-studded cast, including Jennifer Ward-Lealand, Anna Jullienne and Rena Owen, Two Ladies was always going to be a powerhouse theatre show. Its premise is two first ladies, American and French, stuck in a room together while their husbands meet off-stage.

It's a fascinating, and at times amusing insight into the lives of two women, loosely based on Brigitte Macron ('Helene', played by Ward-Lealand) and Melania Trump ('Sophie', played by Jullienne), who we usually only ever see from a distance, or via the media.

Two Ladies is full of powerful and entertaining dialogue alongside unexpected twists and turns.

Jullienne shines as the cold, distant Eastern European wife of the American president, and is both familiar and surprising. Ward-Lealand gives a performance befitting one of our most iconic veterans of New Zealand theatre.

Interspersed with bursts from captivating support characters, including Owen as the American press secretary, Two Ladies makes you realise the power that these women have in their roles as wives of the most powerful men in the world. It takes pillow talk to a whole new level!

With outstanding performances from exceptional actors and moments of humour and intensity, filled with painful truths, this is a show that keeps you engaged throughout. Add to that a cliff-hanger ending, Two Ladies had me thinking about it for days afterward. Don't miss your chance to see these absolute stars of New Zealand theatre in Hastings while you can.

Sisters for 40 years

Our community is celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Hastings-Guilin Sister City relationship this year – 40 years of student, teacher, science, trade, and cultural exchanges.

Over that time special friendships have formed, information has been shared, and understanding developed.

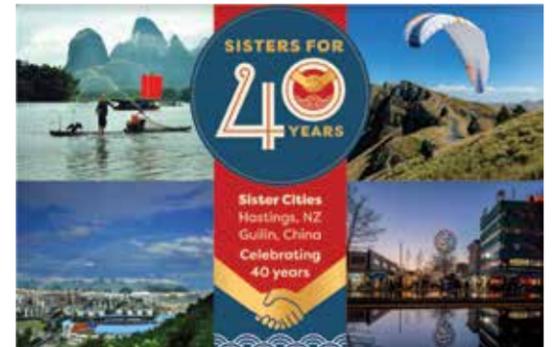

The date of the original signing was March 4, 1981. This March, Hastings Mayor Sandra Hazlehurst and Guilin Mayor Qin Chuncheng will sign a renewal of the original commitment. It agrees that Hastings and Guilin will continue to develop their friendship; fostering goodwill and understanding between the people of both districts.

The ever-popular Lighting of the Osmanthus Gardens lantern festival will be held from April 12-18. It celebrates our relationship with Guilin every year, and will be bigger and better than ever in 2021. The lanterns will be spread across a greater area in the gardens, and food trucks will line the street.

In September, aligned with the Blossom Festival, a free live show, a Hastings-Guilin information and trade showcase, and a celebratory dinner will be held.

The original plan for the celebration was to hold all events across the week of March 1-7. However with COVID alert levels sitting at 2 in Auckland and most of the Chinese performers and many guests hailing from Auckland, the decision has been made to postpone the events and spread them across the year.
