Mayor's Message – 14 April 2020

Kia ora whanau,

I hope your Easter weekend was relaxing and enjoyable in your bubbles. Thank you for staying home and staying local.

Like all of you, we are starting to think what life may look like after this.

There will be some general information about what Alert Level 3 will mean for individuals and businesses which will be released publicly this week on the government's COVID-19 website – <https://covid19.govt.nz/>

In the meantime, our Council is working hard on ways we will be supporting our business community and families. This work will help to ensure our economy stays strong and we can keep our people in employment

For now, look after yourselves and each other. We are almost there!

Let's Stay Safe, Stay Well.

Today's Focus:

On Thursday, the Prime Minister will release more detail about what life will be like at Level 3, and Level 2.

At Level 3, there will still be restrictions on workplaces, schools and gatherings to make sure New Zealand continues to win the fights against COVID-19.

Businesses have been asked to think about how to support contact-tracing tools or mechanisms and keep track of supply chain and customers.
